Discussion

A.

Intervention

HAR § 6-61-55 sets forth the requirements for intervention in commission proceedings. It states, in relevant part:

- (a) A person may make an application to intervene and become a party by filing a timely written motion in accordance with sections 6-61-15 to 6-61-24, section 6-61-41, and section 6-61-57, stating the facts and reasons for the proposed intervention and the position and interest of the applicant.
- (b) The motion shall make reference to:
  - (1) The nature of the applicant's statutory or other right to participate in the hearing;
  - (2) The nature and extent of the applicant's property, financial, and other interest in the pending matter;
  - (3) The effect of the pending order as to the applicant's interest;
  - (4) The other means available whereby the applicant's interest may be protected;
  - (5) The extent to which the applicant's interest will not be represented by existing parties;
  - (6) The extent to which the applicant's participation can assist in the development of a sound record;
  - (7) The extent to which the applicant's participation will broaden the issues or delay the proceeding;
  - (8) The extent to which the applicant's interest in the proceeding differs from that of the general public; and
  - (9) Whether the applicant's position is in support of or in opposition to the relief sought.

HAR § 6-61-55(a) and (b).

HAR § 6-61-55(d) further states that "[i]ntervention shall not be granted except on allegations which are reasonably pertinent to and do not unreasonably broaden the issues already presented." In addition, the Hawaii Supreme Court has stated the general rule on intervention as follows: "Intervention as a party in a proceeding before the [commission] is not a matter of right but is a matter resting within the sound discretion of the commission." In re Application of Hawaiian Elec. Co., Inc., 56 Haw. 260, 262, 535 P.2d 1102, 1104 (1975).

Here, while the commission is cognizant of the varying levels of interest and experience of movants, given the nature of this investigation, the commission will grant all of the Intervention Motions. Nonetheless, Intervenorors are cautioned that their participation as Intervenorors in this docket will be limited to the issues raised in this docket. The commission will preclude any effort by the Intervenorors to unreasonably broaden the issues, or unduly delay the proceeding, and will reconsider an Intervenor's participation in this docket if, at any time, during the course of this proceeding, the commission determines that an Intervenor is unreasonably broadening the pertinent issues raised in this docket or is unduly delaying the proceeding. In addition, given that the commission has granted intervention status to Intervenorors, the commission expects that all Intervenorors will fully participate in the docket, and will comply with the commission's rules and orders. As noted above, failure to do so may constitute cause for the commission to reconsider its decision to grant an Intervenor intervention status.

B.

Procedural Matters

In its Order Initiating Investigation, the commission directed that:

Within sixty days from the date of this Order, the Parties (and intervenors and participants, if any) shall file a stipulated procedural order setting forth the issues, procedures, and schedule to govern this proceeding. If the Parties (and intervenors and participants, if any) are unable to stipulate, each of them shall file proposed orders for the commission's review and consideration within the same deadline.

Order Initiating Investigation, at 8-9.

Given the number of parties to this docket, the commission will extend the original deadline for filing a stipulated procedural order in this docket for an additional two weeks from July 15, 2009 to July 29, 2009.

III.

Orders

THE COMMISSION ORDERS:

1. The Intervention Motions filed by Intervenorors are granted.

2. By July 29, 2009, the Parties shall file a stipulated procedural order setting forth the issues, procedures, and schedule to govern this proceeding. If the Parties (and intervenors and participants, if any) are unable to stipulate, each of them shall file a proposed order for the commission's review and consideration within the same deadline.
